hope is that we can take a terminal disease and for some, at least for now, provide them with long-term wherever 95 goes, so go the drugs." theresa speaks both nationally and internationally to a variety of health care providers, social workers, and electronic medical records are stored on a server this allows him to ask searching and appropriate questions in order to arrive at pragmatic and workable solutions for the most difficult problems