I know firsthand how relentless, difficult and downright mean it can be to an adult, but for a child? it is just totally unfair, and that’s why I am passionate about JA.

If possible, leave really early and plan to arrive before you have to sleep.

And selling unapproved and unregulated medications which may pose risks to the health of consumers.